

Bushnell Recreational and Cultural Center Fitness Facility

Member Guidelines

YOUR PAID MEMBERSHIP SERVES AS AN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND AGREEMENT TO THE TERMS INCLUDED IN THIS DOCUMENT.

Membership Eligibility

- Individuals must be 18 years of age or older to hold a membership.
- Individuals younger than 18 years of age are prohibited from using or being inside the Fitness Facility.
- Photo ID is required to open a membership.

Payment

- Payments may be made monthly or annually at City Hall (138 E. Hail St. Bushnell) via cash or check.
- If a member fails to make payments, the secure access keyfob (more on this below) may be deactivated, and access to the Fitness Facility denied.

Facility Usage

Secure entry

All paid members are issued a uniquely numbered key fob which will unlock the exterior Fitness Facility door:

- Upon initial signup, a $5 activation fee is charged to the member for key fob activation. (Current (paid) members will be transferred over without charge.)
- If a keyfob is lost or damaged and rendered inoperable, a charge of $10 for replacement and re-activation will be charged to the member to reinstate access.
- Fobs may not be shared with other individuals.
- Altering a fob to render its unique ID number unreadable will result in a charge of $10 for replacement and re-activation of a new fob.
- If a fob is lost or stolen, report this to City Hall immediately by calling 309-772-2521. There is a $10 charge for replacement and re-activation of a replacement fob.

Usage and conduct

- Members are required to have their secure entry key fob in their possession at all times while using the fitness facility.
- Members must present their secure entry key fob to verify membership if asked.
- Members should use equipment at their own risk; the City of Bushnell assumes no liability for injuries that may occur.
- Shirts and proper footwear must be worn at all times. No flip-flops or sandals are permitted in the Fitness Facility.
- Food, alcohol, glass containers, smoking, horseplay, and otherwise reckless behavior are prohibited in the Fitness Facility.
- No pets are allowed in the Fitness Facility.
- Members must wipe shared equipment after use.
- The City of Bushnell is not responsible for lost or stolen items; members are responsible for their belongings.
- Members must report any defective or hazardous equipment or other facility hazards to City Hall immediately by calling 309-772-2521

The City of Bushnell maintains a zero-tolerance policy for conduct and criminal behavior. Prohibited or criminal behavior can result in permanent loss of membership, removal of privileges from this and other City of Bushnell properties, and prosecution.
